Coin farming tsum 2020

How more and more people will ask how to setup a car attendant coin to farming your phone, so I write briefly here, I hope it helps. What is an automatic transmitter? The car transmitter is a tool that helps you send and receive the hearts of your friends. This is something you can do manually and repeatedly, with a bit (?) a little boring and annoying. Why do I need an automatic transmitter? First, many players, including myself, do not know our friends will get one heart back if we accept hearts one by one. On the other hand, they get something when we use the Claim All button. I'm so surprised that no, where mentioned this game. In addition, we get a 200 coin bonus if we get hearts in one hour. That's why we need help with the car attendant. People deserve to spend time on more fun things, like breaking through monthly events, collecting loved ones' TSUMs instead of manually doing boring accompanying/receiving jobs, right? How do I set up a transmitter? Ok, that's the most important question. Robotom appears to be the most popular tool for car sending groups. The setup guide can be found on robotom's official website (. Following your steps in the tutorial, you should be able to create. But for an iOS user like me, only XRobotom works on our iPhone. , I have to say, I really appreciate the XRobotom team doing such a good job of saving my life. Second, the interface is friendly enough that I can hardly read the setup guide at all. It is comfortable and stable that I have been using it for more than 7 months. It's something you can hit to run and forget about for the rest of the week. Then I will then use my phone to see how many coins I got and try to get some new Tsums every 2-3 days. So, even though you are an Android user, I still highly recommend that you should give it a shot, it will not betray you. -> finally, if you think it won't save your life, don't forget to give me a clap, so I'm motivated to write more tips ☺. What are you now using for farm coins? What is your overall game strategy? For me: - Farm low char but high skill level Tsum, which generates at least 1000 coins on average (make all tsums LV50 achieve even high score and farm coins fast) - Buy Box only if, if there is a new Tsum so I wont miss any tsum (if you missed tsum, not only is your collection not full, but you wont get exp when it seems like other tsum game time thus wasted) - Use record skills once a week on a Sunday night Maleficent now to achieve a high score so a message that pop up saying I'm close to my weekly score don't appear after every game No longer included? 02-06-2016, 01:57 pm #125 member Join Date: September 2007 Posts: 15349 Cinderella or Fairy God Mother is strong? -- need SL5-6 then strong, i collect tsms so must get, also JP version usually got the theme music when released in the first month, so it has to be received. Kyo Ren already? - yes, I got it with Rey, too. Basically I only missed 1 tsum which is Santa Jack. What are you now using for farm coins? - Beast SL6 - The best coin farmer game. What is your overall game strategy? - I'm always 5/4 & coin boost, at least the SL6 beast has 1k coins per circle, average is 2.5k coins per circle, after a boost. Usually during the day, the leisure pace of playing around 100k-120k coins per day, intense play, 1 hr you get 100k but the hand breaks lol., the record is subjective actually some PPL is really good some tsum some are really bad, the best is to go to youtube to watch the video. I did not hit 10ml without a magical time using SL6 rapunzel but can never do mainficent lol. _____ Fan of Soldam Windy Casings 02-06-2016, 01:58 pm #126 Arch-Supremacy Member Join which: September 2007 Posts: 15349 a good source of information for Japan ver players. I already earn 1-1.2k on average now skill level 4 Tsum. I didn't know the Monster could be so powerful later on. 1hr 100k is a dream!!! I just checked my trophies. I have 130 trophies under you, also understand your walls are all 1 level above my crystal ones while the parties are gold. and yes, I agree with the dark elixirs. I've built them since day one and have never spent, but so far I only got less than 7k. zzz just upgraded drill to level 2, still trying to wait 10k.
